13th Annual Early Start Symposium
Together Is Better: Parents & Professionals in Early Start
Sponsored by Region IX Infant Services Committee

Presenter: Victor J. Bernstein, Ph.D.
Department of Psychiatry, University of Chicago
“Using a Relationship-Based Approach to Early Intervention: It Sounds So Easy, But It’s Hard To Do”

This workshop will reflect on the “Nature of Nurturing Relationships” and identify special skills that help create nurturing relationships. The effects of stresses faced by both parents and professionals will be addressed. The Region IX Infant Services Committee is excited to bring Dr. Bernstein, a nationally known expert on Early Intervention, to our area.

Registration materials will be available in September. Scholarships will be available to parents of children receiving Early Start services who live in Amador, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Stanislaus or Tuolumne Counties.

For registration, contact: (209) 472-3674 or (800) 847-3030.
